CAMPUS CODE OF CONDUCT

1. During devotions, prayer, Bible class, or chapel maintain an attitude of reverence.
2. Walk, don't run when anywhere on campus, with the exception of Recess and P.E. class (when instructed).
3. At all times, treat others, and their property, with respect and love, remembering to "Do unto others as you would have done unto you."
4. Show respect and submissiveness to teachers. Obey all individual class rules cheerfully.
5. Do not in any way damage school property, including office spaces. Restitution will be required for damaged property and disciplinary action will be taken.
6. Do not bring radios, cell phones, electronic games, tape recorders, movies, CDs, or toys to school functions without permission from teachers or the administrator.
7. Permission must be obtained from the school office prior to leaving the school grounds during school hours.
8. At all times, maintain an attitude of honesty and integrity both with others and yourself. Do all things "As unto the Lord." Cheating in any way is a lie and is morally wrong.
9. In all areas of speech and conduct, students will guard the purity of the opposite sex so that they will not defraud one another and displease the Spirit of God (1 Thes. 4:1-8).

Understand that these rules are not in any way designed to restrict children, but rather to train them to be the most that God would have them to be. God is a God of order, and this school will be maintained in an atmosphere of order. In this way each child can get the most out of their education, without the distraction of poor behavior interfering.
